The Club relies almost entirely on the voluntary assistance of its members for its day to day operation and it will be of great help if you will please provide some additional information on your level of sailing ability, sailing qualifications and any other skills that you may be prepared to offer. Any information you provide will be retained solely for use by the Club's Executive Committee and will not be passed to any third party.

All members are expected to undertake a support duty within their competence if required but please indicate which duties you would be prepared to undertake.
